

PETS is looking for a Few Good Horses!

PETS is an all-volunteer, non-profit 501(c)(3) organization (operating out of the Prince George's Equestrian Center) which provides free horseback riding lessons to disabled individuals residing in Prince George's County. It is a NARHA (North American Riding for the Handicapped Assoc.) premiere accredited site and has been in existence since 1981.

Horse donations are tax deductible. The horses go through a screening process to determine appropriateness for the program.

The Program is in need of horses which meet the following criteria:

- ♦ Mild Disposition (Kind and Gentle)
- ♦ Geldings are preferred but not required
- ♦ Should be in the 10-20 year old range
- ♦ Must be able to Walk, Trot, and Canter and be in good health
- ♦ Should be 15.0 to 15.3 hands tall
- ♦ All colors and breeds (depending on temperament) will be considered
- ♦ Neck reining skill would be very helpful
